

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY AND INFORMATION

Visitors who choose to enjoy the natural environment of this low key camping reserve are reminded to observe the following conditions of entry to ensure a pleasant and relaxing stay for all campers and day visitors.

- Fees are payable at the entry pay station or to the Park Ranger.
- Camping is only permitted in the designated campsites as shown on the map.
- Toilets: Do not dispose of chemical toilet waste in the toilets. (Wastewater dump points are located within the reserve)
- Rubbish: Please take rubbish away or use the bins provided. Campsites must be left tidy and clear of all items.
- Water: No potable water is available. Water is available from the Pardoo Roadhouse situated on the Great Northern Highway near the entrance to the Cape.
- Electricity: There is no on site electricity.
- Firewood: Bring your own. Driftwood, mangrove and land timbers support complex eco systems. REMOVAL OF TIMBER IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED.
- Vehicle Access: All vehicles, including motorbikes, must be registered. Please keep to main access tracks and avoid wildlife, dunes and vegetation. NO ATV or QUADS allowed.
- Vehicle Speed: Please reduce speed on all roads and tracks in the reserve.
- Boats: Please launch and retrieve at high tide to protect the marine environment.
- Fishing: Observe the bag limits and dispose of waste in the bins provided. Please wash down the fish cleaning stations after use, leaving it clean for the next person.
- Dogs must remain on a lead at all times and all animal waste must be disposed of appropriately. The Dog Act 1976 applies.

Cape Keraudren Coastal Reserve is located 150km north east of Port Hedland on the Great Northern Highway, and 10kms off the highway via the Cape Keraudren Access Road.

Cape Keraudren is a nature based recreational reserve and is a haven for marine, terrestrial and oceanic animals. The Reserve is a favourite for fishing, crabbing and enjoying a low-key, quiet and private getaway.

The reserve comprises an area of approximately 4,800 hectares, including 60km of coastline, and came under the control of the Shire of East Pilbara in 1985. A Park Ranger resides on site.

There are two FREE Wi-Fi hotspots located at Sandy Beach and at the boat ramp. These "Welcome Wi-Fi" locations also have sheltered and shady seating for your convenience.

Please follow the guidelines in this brochure and Cape Keraudren will remain available for future generations to enjoy.
